Upcoming Events

1. Harvest Jazz and Blues Festival Sept 14-19

Fredericton comes alive for six days each September as hundreds of world class performers appear on dozens of stages, all conveniently located in Fredericton's beautiful and historic downtown. The Harvest Jazz and Blues Festival runs from September 14-19, 2010.

For complete performance schedule, ticketing, volunteer opportunities, blogs and more go to:
<http://www.harvestjazzandblues.com/>

For all ticket, merchandise & information, call 1-888-NB Blues (622-5837).

Retail outlet: Harvest Central, 81 Regent Street, Fredericton
Phone: (506) 455-HJBF (4523).

2. Dance programs at UNB begin this week

UNB Campus Recreation is pleased to offer a variety of dance programs for adults this fall. Choose from Contemporary Dance (Sundays, 2:30 PM), Hip Hop (Mondays, 6-7 PM), Latin Dance (Tuesdays or Fridays, 6:30 PM), Intro to Jazz (Thursdays, 6 PM), and Belly Dance (Thursdays, 7:30 PM).

Programs begin the week of September 12.

Register online at www.campusrec.unbf.ca or call 447-3104 for more information.

3. UNB Chorale and Concert Band fall programs

The UNB Chorale & UNB Concert Band are looking for YOU!

Everyone is welcome - students, staff and members of the community. Students can receive credit for participating in the UNB Concert Band or UNB Chorale. It's not too late to join!

UNB Chorale

If you enjoy singing and can carry a tune, then the UNB Chorale is the group for you. The chorale performs concerts throughout the year on campus and in the community.

Rehearsals begin on Monday, September 13, 7-9 PM in Memorial Hall, Room 23 (2nd floor).

UNB Concert Band

If you play a woodwind, brass or percussion instrument, then we have a place for you in the UNB Concert Band. Come and bring your instrument. If you don't have one of your own - no problem! We have instruments available for loan. Students can also receive credit for participating in the UNB Concert Band or UNB Chorale.

Rehearsals begin on Tuesday, September 14, 5:30-7 PM, at the Memorial Hall Auditorium.

Both groups are directed by Björn Runefors.

For more information contact the Centre for Musical Arts at 453-4697 / musicart@unb.ca

4. John Barton and David Bergen Literary Reading Sept 16

The University of New Brunswick Fredericton would like to invite you to a literary reading by acclaimed writers John Barton and David Bergen.

John Barton, the 2010/11 writer-in-residence, author of eight poetry collections and 2003 CBC Literary Award and the 2006 National Magazine Award winner will be reading from his newest collection: Hymn.

David Bergen, author of celebrated novels The Case of Lena S. and The Retreat, and Giller Prize winner for his novel The Time in Between, will be reading from his newest work of fiction: The Matter with Morris.

This event will be held Thursday, September 16 at 7 PM in the West Gallery at Memorial Hall on the UNB Fredericton campus. We would be pleased to have you join us!

5. Urban Art Event to be held during Harvest Jazz and Blues Festival Sept 17-18

Urban artists from all over the Maritimes are coming to Fredericton to participate in a unique demonstration of their work for two days during the upcoming Harvest Jazz & Blues Festival.

Temporary walls will be set up along Queen Street on Friday, September 17 and Saturday, September 18 where these artists will demonstrate their art for thousands of Festival goers.

"The goal of this project is the promotion of more appropriate forums for the expression of urban art," said Fredericton Police Cst. Dennis Van Ember who chairs the Urban Art Demonstration organizing committee. "A free urban art wall will also be set up where local youth will be encouraged to work alongside these artists."

The urban art event is the work of a committee that includes business owners, the art community, social services agencies, and the Fredericton Police Force. Supplies for this event are being provided by sponsors Kent Building Supplies and Endeavors Art Supplies.

The panels, when completed, will be placed at venues throughout the city for public viewing.

For information: Cst. Dennis Van Ember, Fredericton Police Force 460-2300

Saturday September 18, 2010

10 AM – 12 PM

Christ Church Parish Church, 245 Westmorland St (wheelchair accessible)

Janet Kidd is back in Fredericton with a new workshop: Great Big Clean Sound will help you wow your audience and make your concerts even more enjoyable for singers and listeners alike. Janet gets rave reviews from workshop participants, and the New Brunswick Choral Federation (NBCF) is delighted to have her back in Fredericton this year.

NBCF individual members: Free!
Member of NBCF member choir: $10
Non-NBCF member: $20

To register contact the NBCF office at 453-3731 or by email to nbcf@nbnet.nb.ca.

Janet Kidd is a singer, composer, choral director and published author. She teaches voice, theory and piano. She has been conducting choirs for more than thirty years, and is the author of Keep 'Em Singing, a leadership manual for choir directors, and TaDah, a booklet about effective speaking presentations. Janet is currently developing her own Ear Training and Sight Singing method which she regularly presents in workshops to choirs. She directs SeaBelles Women's Barbershop Chorus in Saint John.

8. Creative Dance for Children begins Sept 18

The new session of creative dance classes for children ages 3-10 will resume on Saturday mornings at STU, in the J.B. O'Keefe Fitness Centre, September 18 - November 20.

Classes are offered for:

parents and tots: 3 year olds	9:30 AM
pre-ballet: 4 & 5 year olds	10:10 AM
ballet/modern dance basics:
6-8 year olds	11 AM
8-10 year olds	12 PM

Children develop coordination, balance and musicality in a playful, fun and creative setting. Both new and returning students are welcome.

For more information please contact the instructor, Zsuzsa Szabo-Nyarady 454-0555 / zsuzsa@stu.ca.
For registration information please contact Jennifer Burry 452-0414 / jburry@stu.ca.

9. Yogadance begins Sept 19 at STU

The new session of Yogadance classes will resume on Sunday afternoons, 1:30-2:30 PM, Sept 19-Nov 21, at the J.B. O'Keefe Fitness Centre at STU.

An energizing and fun dance experience that combines elements of yoga and Pilates based stretch, breath and balance exercises with dance movements to work with the energy centers of the body.

This is an enjoyable program that leaves the participants emotionally and physically renewed. Dance to great music, discover your inner dancer. Both returning and new students and all skill levels are welcome.

For more information please contact the instructor, Zsuzsa Szabo-Nyarady 454-0555 / zsuzsa@stu.ca.
For registration information, contact Jen Burry 452-0414 / jburry@stu.ca.

10. Stand and Deliver at odd sundays at Molly's Sept 19

Sunday September 19, 2-3 PM
Molly's, 554 Queen Street, Fredericton

Take a break from the blues and the jazz for the jazzy, bluesy stylings of the Stand and Deliver poets!

Fredericton's longest running reading series odd sundays at Molly's kicks off with readings from members of STU's energetic, insightful and enthusiastic Stand and Deliver poets, including Michelle MacNeil, Jeremy Fowler, Andrew Titus, your odd sunday's odd host this autumn Kathy Mac, and others to be announced.

After the featured readers, you're invited to deliver your own work in the open set. There'll be a door prize, and excellent coffee, tea, beer and food available from the ever accommodating Molly and Daryl.

For more information, e-mail kathymac@stu.ca.

11. Motion Ensemble: AriadneMachine Sept 19 at Gallery ConneXion

Motion Ensemble presents AriadneMachine; an epic work by Sackville composer W. L. Altman for six live performers, interactive electronics, balloons, live video and light sensors. This work was premiered at Re:Flux 2010 in Moncton to critical acclaim.

The Fredericton show is Sunday, September 19 at Gallery ConneXion (Chestnut Complex at 440 York Street). Admission is $10.

Audiences will also get a chance to hear a brand-new work by Fredericton composer Michael R. Miller called Two Moods of Frederic Chopin commemorating the two-hundredth birthday of the famous Romantic composer; and The Summer Evening (2004) by Robert Morin (Ottawa).

Motion Ensemble, NB's contemporary music source, performs music that is at times irreverent, at times beautiful and always unusual.

Performing this show are Helen Pridmore, voice; Nadia Francavilla, violin; Andrew Miller, contrabass; Karin Aurell, flute; Richard Hornsby, clarinet and D'Arcy P. Gray, percussion.

For more info: go to Facebook "Motion Ensemble" or click here <http://www.motionensemble.com>

12. Christmas @theplayhouse chorale auditions Sept 21

It's time to deck the halls and walk in a winter wonderland once again for Fredericton's annual Christmas @theplayhouse. The show has become an annual tradition and who would make it better than ever? You!

Don't miss your chance to participate in everyone's favourite holiday show! The second and final chorale audition will take place on Tuesday, September 21, 6:30 PM (doors open 6 PM) at the Fredericton Playhouse on a first come, first served basis. Please bring your own water bottle.

Please come prepared to sing a Christmas song, unaccompanied.

The call for acting auditions will be made at a later date in October 2010.

This year's Christmas@theplayhouse will be directed by Tania Breen and Associate Director Philip Sexsmith, and will feature original musical arrangements by award winning composer/musician Michael Doherty.

The Christmas @theplayhouse production will run from December 16-19, 2010. Rehearsals will be on Sunday afternoons starting October 3, with rehearsals becoming more frequent closer to production week.

For more information please contact the Education and Outreach Director at 459-6212 or e-mail amani@theplayhouse.ca.

13. Music on the Hill launches season with Piano Prodigy in Concert Sept 21

Music on the Hill kicks off its 53rd season with a concert featuring 15 year old solo pianist Jan Lisiecki. Lisiecki will perform at Memorial Hall, UNB Campus on Tuesday, September 21, at 8 PM.

Critics call Jan Lisiecki an "aristocrat of the piano", an "extraordinary talent" and praise him for "remarkably poetic and imaginatively executed [playing]". Join this musical prodigy for a concert program featuring works of Chopin in celebration of the composer's 200th birthday.

Tickets are $25 for general admission, $22 for seniors and $10 for students, and will be available at the door. Series subscriptions are also available.

To see the full line-up of concerts for the 2010-2011 season visit www.musichill.unb.ca.

For more information or advance tickets e-mail moth@unb.ca or call 506-453-4697.

16. Biff Mitchell's Scary Night Time Horror Writing Workshop Sept 24

Biff Mitchell's Scary Night Time Horror Writing Workshop is a spine-chilling adventure into the art of writing scary stories that make your readers afraid to look under the bed. We'll look at how to build suspense, make your readers' skin crawl, build weird characters and things that make the heart pound, and create settings that make the ordinary seem supernatural. Biff will also read his terrifying story, The Ghost Cow of Killarney Lake. Bring flashlights, paper and pens or pencils. And dress warm because your blood will be turning into ice. (Note: In spite of the scariness, this will be a family event.)

Friday, September 24, 7-9 PM

Wilmot Park Gazebo, Fredericton (across the street from the Governor's mansion on the Woodstock Road.)

Contact information: Biff Mitchell / 506-455-2433 / biff@biffmitchell.com

20. Wendy Nielsen and Robert Kortgaard in Performance Sept 25

On Saturday, September 25, Wendy Nielsen (soprano) and Robert Kortgaard (piano) will present a special recital to help celebrate St. Thomas University's 100th year.

The program features music by Mozart (an aria from La clemenza di Tito), four songs by Respighi, three by Spanish composer Fernando Obradors, and, intriguingly, Louis Andriessen's "satirical arrangements" of four Beatles tunes. The program will also include the world premiere of a song cycle by STU's Martin Kutnowski, Between the Salt Water and the Sea Sand, based on maritime folksongs and especially written for this event.

The concert takes place at 8 PM in Kinsella Auditorium, McCain Hall, STU. Wine and cheese reception to follow.

Tickets ($25) are on sale at Westminster Books and at STU (Debbie Hudson, 452-0645; hudson@stu.ca). Some may be available at the door.

25. Artistic Kids Painting & Fundraising for Fredericton Arts and Learning at Isaac's Way

Kids... Fundraising for their community? Yes, it is wonderful and true. A group of 36 young artists bonded together last month to paint up a storm at The Charlotte Street Arts Centre. A collaborative effort of young artists ages 3-16 joined creative forces, inspiring each other to create 36 colourful masterpieces, and all for a great cause. These paintings are now inviting bids from the general public at Isaac's Way Restaurant on Carleton Street, Fredericton.

Please visit Isaac's Way Restaurant to view the exhibit, to read about the artists, and to celebrate the efforts of these kids by submitting a bid on your favourite pieces. You will also enjoy the work of the 7 adult artists that helped make this project possible. 100% of the winning bids will be given to Fredericton Arts and Learning to support the free art workshops they deliver to community kids-in-need.

This Silent Art Auction closes Sunday evening September 26.

26. Fall Non-Credit Courses at UNB

This fall, do something for yourself. Consider one of the many fun, educational and creative non-credit courses offered at UNB. Starting the week of September 30, choose from introductory classes in everything from water colour painting to observational drawing to playing the guitar. Hone your writing or photography skills with courses like Writing Hurts, Photoshop for Beginners, Introduction to Digital Photography or Taking Great Pictures. Learn a new language with our Italian, Spanish, French or Chinese courses. Interested in learning a new craft? Try workshops in jewellery-making or pottery. And last but not least, consider new courses in interior design or sewing and fashion design.

Whatever your interests, the College of Extended Learning has a course for you.

For more information, visit our website at www.cel.unb.ca/pce. Register now by calling 453-4646 (voice mail option "6").
